Giants Face Cardinals In New York on Sunday

NEW YORK—The New York Giants, Football Giants, beauty but not exactly hale after their one-sided respite from the pro wars, return to action tomorrow against the St. Louis Cardinals at Yankee Stadium. Kickoff time is 1:30 p.m.

The Cardinals, visitors over the Chicago Bears in Monday night's nationally-televised CBS special, lead the National Football League's eastern division race with a sparkling 6-1 record. The Giants, languishing over the bottom of the standings, are 1-5-1 on the season.

And, if coach Allie Sherman thought the two weeks was going to help, well, he was slightly mistaken.

'Rest' Didn't Help

Strangely enough, the Giants' last three players during the "rest" period—and what's in this about the rich getting richer and the poor, etc.—Aug. way, Bruhaker Larry Vargo, rookie offensive tackle Pranes Peay and veteran defensive tackle Jim Prestel, none of whom was listed as a major casualty after the Philadelphia game ten weeks ago, are out of the St. Louis game.

Vargo missed a knee against the Eagles but the injury was not thought to be serious. Sherman, however, the knee has still eased and it now appears that the swelling may be out indefinitely. Peay, the Giants' No. 1 draft choice who had been penetrating nicely at tackle, came up with a hairline fracture of a small bone in the arch of his foot and, like Vargo, is a question mark. Prestel sprained an ankle Tuesday as Sherman gave the Giants a little contact work in lieu of the kinks of inactivity.

Coming on top of the Maravich's other troubles, the loss of these players, all regulars, is a tough blow.

Changes Made

Earlier, of course, Sherman had named Jim Garcia as a replacement for the injured Rocky Davis as defensive right end, and activated rookie Joe Waldhorn to fill Bob Schnitt' spot on the roster as a reserve center. Schnitt was put on waivers.

With the latest outbreak of injuries, and the re-shuffling of personnel that resulted, there is some question as to whether the Giant team is as strong as the one which barely lost to the Cardinals, 26-28, several weeks ago.

Earl Morrall had a hot hand that day (record for a comp letion in the game) and he will be Sherman's starting quarterback tomorrow. Earl is pitching at only a 47.3 percentage level with 71 of 151 for 1,108 yards, but he's due for a good day—hopefully against St. Louis.

The Giants controlled the ball against the Cards the first time around and the guys who did were fullback Chuck Mercein and halfback Ernie Koy, who will open in the backfield tomorrow with Joe Morrison at the flanker.

Homer Jones, the club's top receiver with 28 for 481 yards and six TDs, and Aaron Thomas will open at split end and tight end, respectively, and Sherman has indicated that the veteran Del Shofner will see more action, too.

Cards Riding High

St. Louis is riding high after its win over the Bears but coach Charlie Winner says he doesn't fear a letdown. "The Giants beat us in everything but points," he says, "and we're not taking them lightly, not for a minute."

VIKINGS TO TEST PACKERS SUNDAY

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Writer

Bart Starr may be screaming when Minnesota's improving defense tears the pocket Green Bay Packers in the National Football League northland.

Tarkenton, the NFL's hottest quarterback in recent weeks, figures to lead the Vikings Division-leading Packers a merry chase at Green Bay. And Bud Grant's Vikings, who came of age last week, promise to make the going rough for Coach Dan Devine's division champs. Green Bay Packers in the National Football League northland.

Tarkenton, the NFL's hottest quarterback in recent weeks, figures to lead the Vikings Division-leading Packers a merry chase at Green Bay. And Bud Grant's Vikings, who came of age last week, promise to make the going rough for Coach Dan Devine's division champs.

Starr just hollered by the return of Paul Hornung.

Vikings Impressive

In thrilling San Francisco 26-7 last Sunday, the Vikings did not commit a touchdown for the first time since they entered the NFL in 1961. Meanwhile, Tarkenton fired two touchdown passes, one for his own side, and gained a total of 249 yards.

The scurrying, squash-nosed has completed 74.7 per cent of his passes in the Vikings' two games, gaining, throwing for 324 yards and seven touchdowns. Minnesota has won two of those three, dropping a three-point decision to Baltimore in his season, 20 a 24-1 season opener. Despite Tarkenton, the Packers, 3-3, rate a slight choice in the tussle Minnesota for the first time in 21 meetings. The Packers' defense, anchored by Ray Nitschke and Willie Davis, has yielded only 19 points in three straight victories.

Starr, who hit on 12 of 19 passes against Detroit last week, is the league's No. 3 passer, thrusting a touchdown after missing two games with a neck injury.

Colts face Redskins

The Colts, trailing Green Bay by 1½ games in the Western race, entertain the Washington Redskins in the day's interconference duel. St. Louis' Eastern Division leaders are at New York, Dallas' high-scoring Cowboys at Philadelphia, the Cleveland Browns at Pittsburgh, the Detroit Lions at Chicago, and the Los Angeles Rams at San Francisco.

Baltimore's Johnny Unitas, who set an all-time record for lifetime passing yardage last Sunday, may garner too much for the Redskins, who have won five of their last six to remain in contention in the East behind the Colts, 5-2, have won three in a row and have beaten Washington six straight times.

Dallas, led by quarterback Don Meredith, throws the Rams's No. 1 offense and No. 2 defense ago and the Eagles in a remain of last month's 28-7 Cowboy romp. Meredith leads the NFL with 28 touchdown passes and Dan Reeves tops the individual scoring parade with 11 TDs for 66 points.

Browns Favored

The Browns, who have won four in a row in a bid to retain their Eastern crown, are heavy favorites to exceed Pittsburgh's losing streak to five. Cleveland won the first meeting 45-20 and hurled Atlanta 49-17 last week as Frank Ryan passed for four scores.

Karl Sweetan, the rookie quarterback who passed for 225 yards last week against the Packers, carries Detroit hopes for a repeat of its season-opening upset over the Bears. Dick Butkus, who sat out most of Monday night's loss to St. Louis with a painful leg muscle, returns to Soldier Chicago's defensive lineup.

The 49ers will be out to reverse an early 34-3 loss to the Angeles while the Rams will be trying to duplicate their victory over San Francisco.

Other games on the schedule were Army-George Washington, Baylor-Texas, Brown-Cornell, Clemson-North Carolina and Dartmouth-Columbia.

Kentucky-Vanderbilt, Michigan-Minnesota, Michigan State-Navy-Duke Now Mexico-California, North Carolina State-Auburn, Missouri - Colorado, Maryland, Northwestern-Illinois, Ohio State - Indiana, Oklahoma-Kansas State, Oregon State - Arizona, Oregon-Washington State and Penn State-Syracuse.

Penn-Yale, Princeton-Harvard, South Carolina - Florida State, Stanford-Air Force, Wake Forest-Virginia Tech, Wichita State-Wyoming and Wisconsin-Purdue.

Lead Undefeated Georgia Tech

The Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, coached by Bobby Dodd for the 22nd year, are marching through another undefeated season, led by the trio above. The Jackets have three to play, against Virginia today, Penn State and Georgia. Tech is now playing independent, having dropped out of the Southeastern Conference. Lucas have has scored six touchdowns to lead the team this season.

MIAMI FAVORED TO BEAT TULANE

By RON RAPOPT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Miami, which owner Southern California a week ago, is being judged by its coach to resemble a Coyote of older speeds.

The Hurricanes are favored to subdue Tulane in New Orleans tonight, but Coach Charlie Tate is reminding his squad that it was favored over the Green Wave the first two times Tulane and were beaten twice.

Defeated Twice

Miami has had only to Florida State and Louisiana State this season, the highpoint being reached last week when the Hurricanes knocked off the unbeaten passing yardage last Sunday, may prove too much for the Redskins, who have won five of their last six to remain in contention in the East behind the Colts, 5-2, have won three in a row and have beaten Washington six straight times.

Dallas, led by quarterback Don Meredith, throws the Rams's No. 1 offense and No. 2 defense ago and the Eagles in a remain of last month's 28-7 Cowboy romp. Meredith leads the NFL with 28 touchdown passes and Dan Reeves tops the individual scoring parade with 11 TDs for 66 points.

Trinity Field Named To Honor Dan Jessee

HARTFORD — The Trinity College football field, named less since 1891, today will be named "Jessee Field" in honor of Trinity's retiring football coach, Daniel E. Jessee.

Coach Jessee, currently president of the American Football Coaches Association, will be notified officially of the naming of the field in a brief ceremony just before a Homecoming crowd for the 42nd renewal of this ancient rivalry.

The game will be the last home contest of Jessee's 25-year coaching career. Trinity will play its final game against Wesleyan at Middletown, Nov. 12. A Trinity triumph in either game would bring Jessee's career total to 130 victories, 80s ties and 11 and did seven.

Jessee, whose tenure at Trinity is the longest uninterrupted term recorded by any active college coach in the country at any college, is the first coach of a small college ever electing to head the national coaches' association.

Top Teams Favored

All the nation's nationally ranked teams played this afternoon with top-rated Notre Dame taking on Pittsburgh and Michigan State, the No. 2 team, meeting Iowa.

UCLA, No. 3, played Washington; Alabama, tanked fourth one; LSU, Georgia Tech, No. 7 tangled with Virginia; Nebraska, ranked ninth, met Kansas; Florida, No. 7, played Georgia, eighth-ranked Arkansas played Rice; Southern California, No. 9, played California, and Texas, the No. 2 team, meeting Iowa.

CHIEFS DEFEND SLIM LOOP LEAD

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Writer

Boston's hasty Jim Nance has burst through opposing Atlantic Football League lines for 783 yards this season. The Patriots would have you believe he's the top rusher in the league.

But you'll never persuade Kansas City that it doesn't have the AFL's top running threat every time Len Dawson hands off to his fullback.

Sometimes the men with the ball is dirt. Gene and other times it's Mike Garrett. They share the Chiefs' fullback job, and together have produced more yardage than Boston's Nance.

Garrett Proves Worth

Garrett, the Heisman Trophy winner who quit the Chiefs an estimated $200,000, has gained 495 yards on fourth best figure in the league.

Coan, the veteran starter, has gained 381 yards — fifth best. The Chiefs' halfback twins figure to be plenty of action Sunday when Kansas City defends its nine-and-0 record Western Division lead against Cincinnati in Kansas City's AFL's lazy games.

Nance, whose figure is deceptive his weight is listed at 235 pounds, is the Patriots' workhorse.

In other games, Buffalo, trying the Pats by one-half game in the East, visits Miami and old friend Cookie Gilchrist while Houston's George Blanda tests the league's best passing defense at Oakland.

Coward Gainers

Between them Garrett and Coan have gained out 781 yards rushing and with Dawson hitting Gus Gus Dugas's John Hall for the AFL's passing lead, the Chiefs have the league's most potent attack.

Hall, pacing the AFL's passers with a .333 completed percentage, has had to depend on his air attack this year. The Chargers' once devastating ground game has sputtered all year and Paul Lowe, last year's rushing champ, has been relegated to returning kickoffs.

The Chargers, 2-3-1 to Kansas City's 6-2, returned from a three-game eastern tour of the East to top Denver 26-17 last week. San Diego has won only four games on the road all season.

Nance rushed for 288 yards in Boston's 24-20 victory over Oakland last week as the Patriots won their third straight. Boston has the league's top rushing defense but its poorest passing defense as the Broncos can testify.

Buffalo dropped its first loss, 24-10, christ gained 32 yards in 10 carries against Houston in his first game for the Dolphins. The ex-Buffalo star was named Rookie of the Week by the Miami Touchdown Club.

Miami has won two straight after dropping its first five. Gilchrist gained 32 yards in 10 carries against Houston in his first game for the Dolphins. The ex-Buffalo star was named Rookie of the Week by the Miami Touchdown Club.

Bills Back in Race

Buffalo has battled its way back into the Eastern race and had New York for second place with a 13-12 victory over the Jets last Sunday. Bobby Burnett and Wray Carlenon, Buffalo's passing backs, are 3-3 in the AFL's rushing statistics behind Nance.

CLAY HINTING OF RETIREMENT

HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay pitched camp in a downtown gym today, and onlookers had a warning from the champion himself not to be misled by his lackadaisical training style for the bout, a heavyweight title bout with Houston's Cleveland Williams.

"I won't be looking my best in public," Clay said. "The real training won't be done in public."

The champ and most of his entourage arrived in Houston Friday, and Clay promptly called a news conference in which he dropped little atom on acting back and the possibility of his retirement.

No Predictions

He refused to offer any predictions about how long he thinks the fight will last, explaining, "If I say the first round, you might tell come."

East Lillard, promoter of the fight, said he expects plenty of people to come to the Astrodome — some 18,000. "It would take 12,000 for a $1 million gate," he said.

Clay said that if he loses to Williams, he might be ready to retire, that his promise to retire if knocked out still stood, and that he might be ready to throw in the towel in any event.

"I'm not dominating anything, but after Williams and Terrell, I would like to retire as champion with money in the bank," he said.

He recognized the difficulties of being champion.

"You live a life that all mothers and fathers can accept morally and lawfully. You can't please everybody. President Johnson doesn't please everybody.

Avoids Girls

"I don't go to night clubs and I don't take part in demonstrations, and I don't walk down streets with girls. And that's hard when you are young, attractive-looking and champion of the world."

Clay said, "I believe Williams will be in shape to go the distance. If he can stay five rounds and then follow me, then he's more after that.

"This is my fifth fight this year, and I'm a little tired. A man who hits as hard as Cleveland — if he tags me, I might have a little trouble. He is terrific punching for when I'm a little tired and have had a little trouble with my hands and back."

The old showman bubbled back in the workout, and Clay told newsmen, "I don't want no quick knockings around here between eight and nine o'clock on the 14th. I plan a launching of my own."

THE WRONG ROAD

On Friday evening Oct. 28, 1966, near Greenwich, five cars crashed together on the Conn. 15, Wilbur Cross Parkway in Cheshire. The toll of death and destruction occasioned by five wrecked cars, several seriously injured people—and three dead. This accident was caused by a guy traveling East on the West bound lane. The dead were the driver and two passengers of that car. Sure, the driver lived so close to where the accident occurred we can only conjecture that the last few hundred yards or engrossing his non-purpose, gave us the main the fatal hard on the wrong road into the oncoming traffic. What last thoughts were in the dreadful instant between realization of his mistake and the crushing of his life, we'll never know. But I do know that millions of people in life's highway will have a terrible instant of terrible realization of error as they charge into Eternity into a lost eternity. When salvation is beyond their ken. Jesus said, "I am the way, no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Trust now in Christ as your saviour, for, "There is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we MUST be saved." Act 4:12.
